

Cheese Tasting

1.3h, 95€ per person (2 pers min)

France has about 350 different cheeses and we propose you to discover all the richness of our Terroir with an initiatory course of the art of tasting. Virginie inherited her passion and “savoir faire” from her father, and she personally selects and matures the cheeses she will let you taste.

Virginie will lead you downstairs in her beautiful maturing cellar, where she will explain how she works and you will surely understand what makes her one of the best cheese maker in Paris. You will discover the secrets of making and maturing cheese and what is the best wines to eat them.

Of course, you will taste different kind of cheeses and learn everything about their origins and particularities.
