

Excursion to Chantilly

295 €, 7h, up to 7 persons

The Chantilly Castle has witnessed a large part of French history, from the middle ages to the French revolution. The Duke of Bourbon built the amazing stables, and the whole was restored by the Duc d'Aumale. Today, these architectural and artistic treasures are now belonging to the Condé museum, and the Living Horse museum is a must see for all the horse lovers.

During this trip, you will:

- Be picked up at 9.30 at your apartment,
- Visit the Living Horse Museum
- Have lunch at 1pm;
- Visit the Chantilly Castle and the Condé Museum,
- Be back at your hotel at 4.30pm

Not included: Lunch, and Castle entrance. Extra hours 50€.
